

SOCIAL NOTES

Honolulu music-lovers are to be favored with a number of recitals by Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond of Chicago, whose fame as a writer, composer, player and solo-reciter is known throughout the mainland. Mrs. Jacobs-Bond is a woman who writes poems, sets them to music and sings them in a manner that reveals the very acme of art, her entertainments being unique and so thoroughly enjoyable, according to the best critics, that none can afford to miss them. She appears in all the great cities of the mainland, where she is known to all who appreciate the best, and the fact that Honolulu will be able to hear her is something upon which they are to be congratulated. The first two or three recitals to be given will be in private houses and in the rooms of the Kilo-hana Art League, arranged as benefits for the Free Kindergarten and the Kunalu Boat Club, while later a re-

Speaking of Mrs. Jacobs-Bond, Elbert Hubbard, in the Philistine, says: "Art, at the last, is a matter of heart, not head; and this fact was brought home to me strongly a few weeks ago on hearing Mrs. Jacobs-Bond. Her performance is all so gentle and unaffected that you think you could do the same yourself—simple, pattering little child-songs, set to tunes that sing themselves. But in some way they search out the corners of your soul, and make you think of the robin that used to sing at sunset, calling to his lost mate from the top of a tall poplar, in the days of long ago. As a reader and a singer Carrie Jacobs-Bond is as subdued as a landscape by Monet, and as true and effective as a sketch by De Merville."

Mrs. Jacobs-Bond's first recital will be given on Friday afternoon at four o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Clarence Cooke, the second one to be under the auspices of the Kilo-hana Art League on the evening of Tuesday, March 24. The first of these is for the Free Kindergarten, and another for the same cause will be given on the evening of the twenty-seventh at the Moana Hotel. The committee in charge of the Kindergarten benefits is composed of Mrs. Theodore Richards, Mrs. Mannie Phillips, Mrs. L. R. Myers, Mrs. George Cooke, Miss Margaret Hopper.

In a recent issue of a Washington newspaper appeared the following account of a recital given by Mrs. Jacobs-Bond at the White House: "Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond, the poet-composer of Chicago, was in town last Monday for a day, having come to give a song recital at the White House for the President and Mrs. Roosevelt. The occasion was most informal. Mrs. Bond sang some of her most famous songs in a very charming manner. Among them were the following: 'His Lullaby' (at present being sung by Mrs. Schumann-Helink), 'Captain of the Broomstick Cavalry', 'Going to Church with Mother', 'Three Little Songs of Color', 'Just by Laughing', 'Just a-Wearing for You', 'I Love You Truly', 'The Lily and the Rose.' Mrs. Bond also gave some of her stories in verse. Mrs. Bond, in addition to writing both words and music for her songs, gives recitals in many cities. Last year she sang in seventy-eight recitals.

"She has a most fascinating workshop in Chicago called the Bond Shop, where all the composing and printing is done. This year Mrs. Bond has been particularly busy, as she is planning a trip to Japan this winter, and is going to sing at all the principal cities from Chicago to the Coast. In manner, Mrs. Bond is very fascinating and has a wide interest in music in all its branches."

Mrs. J. W. Saunders and Miss Dora Saunders, the wife and daughter of Captain Saunders of the Manchuria, who have been making a delightful visit here, have concluded to postpone their departure for some weeks yet, welcome news to their many Honolulu friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham are expected in Honolulu this week, being due to arrive on the Manchuria. The young couple will be the guests of honor at a number of affairs arranged to welcome them. Mrs. Dillingham, who has very many friends here already, will be a welcome addition to the society circle.

Mrs. George Robinson and Miss Robinson will visit in Hawaii, expecting to sail for the big island on Tuesday.

In the reception room of the W. W. Hall residence, 1708 Nuuanu avenue, at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall, Florence Hall, became the bride of Malcolm McIntyre, son of Malcolm T. McIntyre, the Rev. Dr. Doremus Scudder officiating. The ceremony, a quite, home affair, was witnessed by a hundred of the friends and relatives of the families of the bride and groom. It was in a corner of this great room, many years ago, that the father and mother of the bride were wedded, and where, about two score years ago, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones held a reception following their wedding.

The resources of Moanalua were drawn upon for the beautiful floral decorations which made the room a bower of sweetness. Green and white predominated in the color scheme. When, with the wedding march, the bride entered the apartment, she was preceded by two pretty little ribbon-girls, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Alonso Gartley, bearing white ribbons. The bride advanced on the arm of her father, arrayed in white satin exquisitely adorned with lace, wearing orange blossoms in her hair and bearing in her hands a magnificent shower bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was a double-ring affair.

Following the service an informal reception was held and refreshments were served. There were many splendid and costly wedding gifts. The young people will reside on Vancouver Highway, College Hills, upon the completion of their house now building.

Among those who will make the first trip on the new Inter-Island flag-ship, was a passenger aboard the ship Mauna Kea will be Queen Liliuokalani.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fairchild returned to their Kaula home on Tuesday last, having been here to attend the Floral Parade and Mardi Gras ball. The beautiful car entered in the parade by Mrs. Fairchild was one of the best and generally greatly admired.

United States Judge Sanford B. Dole and Admiral Very, U. S. N., were on Wednesday recipients of calls from the retiring Chinese consul and his successor. A salute of seven guns was fired at the naval station in honor of the dignitaries.

The program at the Wednesday meeting of the Morning Music Club, the membership of which includes many of the leading musicians among the fair sex in local society circles, was added to in attractiveness by the appearance of Mrs. Jacobs-Bond, of Chicago, now visiting in the city, who contributed a number of her own compositions and won a place for herself in the hearts of the music loving young ladies. The regular program for the morning was:

"Louise" Mrs. Love.
 "Song from 'Huguenots'" Mrs. Herzer.
 "Legende" Carl Bohm.
 "O Let Me Press Thy Cheek to Mine" Mrs. Ross.
 "Sleep, My Little One" Jensen.
 "Berceuse" Schytte.
 String Quartet, "Don't" (allegro vivace) Mrs. Ingalls, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Bessie Hopper, Mrs. Ross.
 "Im Fruhling" A. Fesca.
 "Widmung" Schumann.
 "Die Jagd" Rheinbuger.
 "Wichtige Begebenheit" Schumann.
 "Traumerei" Mrs. von Holt.
 "Schon Glocken" von Felitz.
 Mrs. C. H. Jennings, of Koloa, Kauai, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Crane.

Mrs. Inez Shorb White, one of the prominent society women of San Francisco, was a passenger aboard the transport Thomas, which passed through during the week for the Orient. Mrs. White is going to Manila to meet Captain Buck, to whom she is to be married.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Dugald Campbell, formerly of Waima, Kauai, will be much interested to hear that their son Colin, born on Kauai, has successfully passed out of the Britannia Royal Naval College, Dartmouth, England, and joined his ship, H. M. S. Cornwall, on January 20 to start on his first cruise to the West Indies and Canada. Colin Campbell is the first island-born lad who has gone into the British navy.—Anglican Church Chronicle.

The principals in "The Mascot" have now settled down to steady work and are rapidly getting into shape. This opera calls for some very fine work, which requires constant and careful practice, and from all indications everything called for will be produced. The management considers itself particularly lucky in having secured Mrs. L. R. Crook for the part of Bettina (the mascot), and her splendid voice will be heard to great advantage in several solos which fall to her part. Pippo, the shepherd, is a part calling for particularly good voice and action and will be done full justice to by Mr. Hugo Herzer, whose exceedingly popular voice has not been heard in public for some time. His rendition of this character is being anticipated with much pleasure.

The fun and laugh business will be in the able hands of "Sonny" Cunha, whose popularity in this line ranks him as one of the first of amateur comedians in Honolulu. "Sonny" will introduce several specialties and local hits, and has one or two popular songs which are all the rage just now in the East. Rocco, as portrayed by him, will prove a veritable dish of smiles.

Mrs. Hugo Herzer, as Fiametta, will be heard to great advantage, the part just suiting her pretty voice, and her "action" will prove a pleasant surprise to those who have not seen her act before.

Mr. James D. Dougherty will take the tenor's part, "Frederic," meaning that this will be well handled. Mr. Dougherty has lately returned from the Coast, bringing with him many new songs and specialties, all of which will be produced on the opening night. All the principals, together with a few minor roles and a strong, well-trained chorus, will form a combination well known to theater-goers of this city as the people who do things and do them well.

At her residence on Young street, Mrs. C. L. Rhodes gave a pleasant luncheon last Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jerome Arendt and Mrs. Joe Cohen. The guests were Mrs. Jerome Arendt, Mrs. Joe Cohen, Mrs. Alexander Hobson, Mrs. W. J. Cooper and Mrs. F. W. Carter.

The Pollard opera season promises to be the recordbreaker of good business for the Orpheum. The smart set are trying to outdo themselves in giving box and theater parties, while all the old patrons of our little family playhouse are placed on the books for a season ticket of the engagement with these talented child artists.
